

Transler, Va.
Nov. 1, 1934.

I, Geo. W. Barnes, being first duly sworn, make the following statement:
I have known Mr. D.T. Horrell for the last seventy five years, know that he was in the Confederate army in Col. J. M. Hymis Bn., a Carolina regiment. While none of his comrades and officers are living, and there are some facts he is not able to establish, I believe he is fully entitled to a pension, being old and now in reduced circumstances.
