for a night and that night Jimmie and I went into the house and after a little time Bob and I went into the house together and I found him on the floor and that Bob took Jim up and put him on a bench and that this took hold of Jim's hand and helped Bob with him to the bench that Jim's hand off Jim's hand and that Bob said that this had been a long time and that now he had got his satisfy and that this nitch went after some time to get some chips to move up the fire and feeling about in the dark she touched the hand of the dead which felt cold and that after she had kindled up the fire she saw Jim's hand lying on the floor and she felt of his hand and it felt very cold and she thought that he was dead and that she called Bob and he not answering she went to him and told him that Jim was dead But Bob said that Jim was not dead yet and this nitch again went and looked at Jim & found that he was dead and Bob came and looked at him also and said that he was dead and this nitch said she would go and inform her master and Bob said so you may and she went and called up her master & told him that Jim was dead

Abraham a negro man slave the property of Mike Griffin of this county of full age being charged says that on Saturday the night on which Jim was killed he went home with Mr. Gardner at 1/2 hour in the night and that he went into the kitchen & saw Bob lying on the bed and that he spoke to him and that Bob the prisoner made him no answer and that he let some time and Eddy a negro woman came in & got up and saw Jim lying on the bench & Bob the prisoner asked Eddy for some Cyen and for something to eat and he asked this nitch to eat with him and this nitch asked Bob for a piece of Snuff and Bob said he had none but his
