

227 William Lown of passage deposed that a negroman named Isaac the property of ^{Isaac} ~~Isaac~~ came to his house and 1st that there was a negro at his master's house and had taken his clothes and gone of and requested the Defendant to watch the road and catch him if he past that night that between 7 & 10 o'clock of the same night being the 12th that a negro past along the road & one of this depts. negroes came and told him of it and this depts. supposing it to be the same runaway pursued him about 300 yds could not seeing him rise and got his horse and again pursued him together with ^{Isaac} ~~Isaac~~ and at Dimpley Grummes a Mutator's found him that prisoner at the bar in the 1st Grummes house and immediately secured him that he had on a striped singlany coat a linen shirt a pr of white p. pantalons pr of long shoe boots & being asked if he had any more clothes he says that he had & this depts. told him that if he had it was better to confess it or he would lose them as he was then about to take him immediately to Jail ~~and~~ he confessed that he had more hid out and this depts. told him the prisoner at the bar to go & show them to him. That on getting up to go out of the house the prisoner took up a hat put it on his head which was the same hat that My ~~Man~~ ^{Man} had written his name in that after going about thirty yds from the house the prisoner show'd this depts. the clothes that he had hid which was another pr of long boots a round worned ~~shacket~~ ^{shacket} with sleeves a pr of shankies breeches a white satin waistcoat lined with blue lace a pr of coarse shoes & a pr of white ~~some~~ ^{some} ~~some~~ pantalons that contained the afore^d last mentioned articles & James Exum of full age being sworn deposed to the Words for word agreeable to the foregoing depts of W. Lown saw a small apprentice negro boy ~~being~~ ^{being} ~~about~~ ^{about} 13 or 14 years of present understanding being charged & proved that he was that last Friday night at the shop of his master