pursued the prisoner into the garden and took him and delivered him to the witnesses. he was then secured and sent to jail - the negroes were all mounted and prisoner was the only negro who went into the garden - that the prisoner was lame and could not run. the witnesses says that it is impossible that the person who jumped into the garden could have been the one who was shot.

Mary a slave being sworn and charged as a witness for the Comtee. says that when the alarm was given of the attack made by the negroes on her Master Doctor Blunt's house - her mistress Mrs Blunt told her to take her child and make her escape with her, that she ran down in the garden, became so fatigued and frightened that she put the child down and told her to get in the bushes - that she then returned toward the house and met a negro man, who asked her who she was that he appeared to be a small man, with a light coloured cap. on Frank a slave being sworn as a witness on behalf of the Comtee says that the prisoner was taken in the garden fifteen or twenty minutes after was the attack on Doctor Blunt's house, by the witness and brought up with a cap on such as described by Mary - that he the witness was standing in the yard when the negroes rode up that the foremost of them had on light breeches and the others dark ones - that the foremost one held up his gun flashed it threw it down, dismounted and jumped over the garden fence saying Ah god dam you have I got you to Mary and two or three others who were running in the garden - that he was looking in the garden found the prisoner concealed in the corner of a house, took him and brought him up - that his breeches corresponded with those which the foremost man had on - that the prisoner said that Aunt Drew had sent him to Mr. Laughman to see what the news was - that before he got there the negroes took him and forced them to join them -

Dark a slave was charged and sworn as a witness for the Dft and stated that he was one of the insurgents that the prisoner joined them voluntarily - that they were together some time that he was in the company that went to Dr Blunt's, but that the witness did not get to the house, but the prisoner went on and he saw nothing more of him.

Delory a slave was charged and sworn on behalf of the prisoner who states that she lived at Mr. Laughman - that the prisoner came there Monday evening the day before the attack was made
