

at Doct. Blum's the next morning, that after being there about three quarters of an hour, the insurgents were seen coming about three hundred yards off - that the prisoner remained until they came up altho' he was mounted - that they required the prisoner to go with them which he objected to that they threatened him with his arms and he went off with them. witness thinks prisoner could have escaped while the insurgents were coming up.

Newt Drew was sworn and examined. who stated that he gave no such order to the prisoner as he spoke of but on the contrary that he the witness met with the prisoner shortly before he was at Mrs. Claughton's and ordered him to go home -

Whereupon after hearing the testimony and the prisoner by his counsel, the Court are unanimously of opinion that the prisoner is guilty in manner and form as in the Information against him is set forth. and it being demanded of him if any thing for himself he had or knew to say why the Court should not proceed to pronounce judgment against him according to law. and nothing being offered or alledged in delay of Judgment it is considered by the Court that the prisoner be taken hence to the place from whence he came where he is to be safely kept until Monday the fifth day of September instant, on which day between the hours of ten O'clock in the forenoon and two O'clock in the afternoon he is to be taken by the Sheriff to the usual place of execution and there be hanged by the neck until he be dead. And the Court doth value the said Slave Moses to the sum of four hundred dollars -
