a particular instance in which it was believed that he had in that manner effected a cure upon one of his comrades. And that he went on to detail a medley of incoherent and confused opinions about his communications with God, his command over the clouds &c. &c. which he had been entertaining as far back as 1826.

The Court after hearing the testimony and from all the circumstances of the case are unanimously of opinion that the prisoner is guilty in manner and form as in the Information against him alleged. and it being demanded of him if any thing for himself he had or knew to say to the Court to judgment and against him of and upon the premises should not proceed - he said he had nothing but what he had before said. Therefore it is considered by the Court that he be taken hence to the Jail from whence he was taken therein to remain until Friday the 11th day of November instant. on which day between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon he is to be taken by the Sheriff to the usual place of execution and there he be hanged by the neck until he be dead. And the Court value the said slave to the sum of three hundred and seventy five dollars.

Ordered that William L. Parker be allowed the sum of ten dollars as a fee for defending Nat alias Nat Turner late the property of Putnam Moore an infant.

J. C. Cobb

At a leall. Court held for the County of Southampton at the Courtroom on Saturday the fifth day of November 1831 for the Examination of John B. Parsons charged with feloniously and wilfully shooting Benj^r. Roe & Benj^r. Williamson - Present. Jeremiah Cobb. Thomas Prutton. James W. Parker. James D. Massenburg and Orris McDermott. Gentl.

The Court being thus constituted the prisoner was set to the bar in custody of the jailor of this County and thereupon sundry witnesses to wit Benjamin Roe.

Stedje and Benjamin Lewis were sworn and examined as witnesses and the prisoner by his Counsel fully heard. The Court after hearing the testimony and from all the circumstances of the case are of opinion that the prisoner ought to be tried for the said offence in the next Circuit Superior Court to be held for this County and thereupon he is remanded to Jail.

Be it remembered that Benjamin Roe. Sterling Stedje & Benjamin Lewis here in Court severally acknowledged themselves to be indebted to
