A Writing bearing date the 11th day of June 1829 and purporting to be the last will and Testament of George Branch Sr. dec. was again produced in Court. ^{by Polly Branch} Whereupon Leary Gay appeared by his ^{Attorney} and opposed the proof of the said writing as and for the last will and Testament of the said George Branch Sr. dec. And thereupon whether by written the subscribing witness to the said writing and sundry other witnesses were sworn and examined and the parties by their counsel fully heard. On consideration whereof it is the opinion of the Court that the said writing is the true ^{last} will and Testament of the said George Branch Sr. dec. so far as to for only as to personal estate. That the Testator at the time of executing the said writing was of sound and disposing mind and memory and was under no undue influence.
 Therefore it is ordered that the said writing be recorded as and for the last will and Testament of the said George Branch Sr. dec. so far as to pass the personal estate thereby conveyed.
