John Reese, John Turner & Charles Fuller Attorneys for Defs

John Reese v. Williams Debt. The Defendant moved the Court to allow him to file a Special plea in bar. the Court after hearing Counsel in opposition to the motion permitted the Defendant to file the said plea which being done the Plaintiff filed a demurrer to the said plea and the Defendant joined in the said demurrer. and the matters of law arising upon the demurrer being argued it seems to the Court that the said Special plea is sufficient in Law to bar the Plaintiff from having or maintaining his action against the Defendant: whereupon on the motion of the pliff. by his attorney he is allowed to reply to the said plea - which being done - and issue being joined thereupon came a jury to wit William B Beale, Samuel Polkshorn, Nathan Sater, Robert Ricks, Samuel H Adams, Patrick Dole, Robert Mercer, Joseph Joyner, Edwin Williams, John Mercer, John Cobb & James Cook who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined, who returned a verdict for the pliff. Judgment rendered for the same with costs &c.
