

him according to law and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment it is considered by the Court that the prisoner be hanged by the neck until he be dead and that execution of this judgment be made and done upon him the said Frank by the Sheriff of this County on Wednesday the 13 day of March next between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two in the afternoon of the same day at the usual place of executions. And therefore the said Frank is remanded to Jail, and application being made that the Court would recommend to the Sheriff to execute the same, the Court doth order that the Sheriff do execute the same as aforesaid and that the Court value the said Slave Frank to the sum of eight hundred dollars.

Per Court