 & security according to law.

Henry D. Wags of the County of Southampton who stands charged with the felonious murder of Edmund Stephenson at North James in this County of Lincoln was this day set to the bar in custody of the Keeper of the Jail of said County. (The Court been moved for his examination having failed to meet) and there upon sundry witnesses were sworn and examined and their answers by the Court fully heard. On consideration whereof it is the opinion of the Court as this case appears to them that the said Henry D. Wags be discharged from further prosecution for the supposed offence and proclamation being made as the manner is for the further appearing or being alleged against the prisoner it is ordered that he be discharged from custody.
