These causes came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and on the reports of the learned persons made at the last to which exceptions had been filed and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge order and decree that the said reports be held firm stable & binding between the parties and that the rate of their suits be proportionally borne between the parties, liberty being reserved to the infant defendants to shew cause if any they can against this decree within six months after this report is made to 21 years of age.
