This day these causes came on to be again heard on the papers formerly read together with the reports of the commissioners made at the last Term of this Court to which reports no exceptions having been filed were agreed by Counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court approving and confirming said reports, doth adjudge, order and decree that the same be held firm and stable and binding between all the parties before, and that the costs of these suits be proportion-ably borne by all the parties.
