This day came the parties by their attorney and thereupon came a jury consisting of Richard B. Blythe & eleven others who being elected tried and upon the truth to break upon the issue joined upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words: "We of the jury find for the plaintiff the debt interest and costs in the writ mentioned".
Therefore it is considered by the court that the Plaintiff may have execution against the defendant for forty three dollars and seventy eight cents with legal interest thereon from the 4th day of January 1836 till paid the debt and interest and $8.00 the costs in the writ aforesaid specified; and also that the plaintiff recover against the defendant his costs by him expended in suing forth and prosecuting this writ. to be levied of the goods and
