This day came the parties by their attorneys and thereupon came a jury sworn: Mansfield Stokes, Jno. J. Crump, Pelage Larson, Saml. Ellis, Jno. C. Rumm, Benjamin Bryant, Matthew Harris, Leonard Cobb, W^m D. Bryant, Levi Stephenson, Harrison Joyner & W^m Mallory who being selected by lot, elected, tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined upon their oaths returned a verdict in the following words: "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned subject to a credit of $27.10 on the 2nd of May 1849, - We further find that the costs be borne equally by the plaintiff & defendant." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant fifty dollars the debt in the declaration mentioned with legal interest thereon from the 22nd day of August 1848, and that the costs of this suit be equally borne by the parties. But this judgment shall be subject to the credit of $27.10 as on the 2nd day of May 1849.
