

heard the evidence and of opinion that a felony has been committed and that there is probable cause to charge the said John Faircloth therewith doth remand him to the Circuit Court of this County for trial of the offence with which he stands charged. And thereupon the said John Faircloth moved the Court to be allowed to give Bail for his appearance before the said Circuit Court, which motion the Court entertained and allowed him to give Bail in the sum of Five hundred Dollars for himself, with security in the like sum of Five hundred Dollars. Whereupon the said John Faircloth together with Joshua Birtles, Benj. D. Knider and Newton R. Joppa his securities, acknowledge themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the manner following, that is to say: The said John Faircloth in the sum of Five hundred and the said Joshua Birtles Benj. D. Knider and Newton R. Joppa his securities in the like sum of Five hundred Dollars to be levied of their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements and to the use of the said Commonwealth standeth. Yet upon this condition that if the said John Faircloth shall personally appear before the Judge of the Circuit Court of this County, on the first day of the next term to stand his trial for a felony by him committed in this that he did in this County on the 18th day of September 1809, that is to say James R. Jones with a pocket knife, and shall not depart thence without the leave of the said Court, then the above recognizance shall be void otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

And it remembreth that Frederick Rhum acknowledges himself to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of $100. to be levied of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements and for the use of the said Commonwealth standeth. Yet upon this condition that if he shall personally appear before the Judge of the Circuit Court of this County on the first day of the next term to give evidence on behalf of the Commonwealth against John Faircloth and shall not depart thence without the leave of the said Court then the above recognizance to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

And it remembreth that Newton R. Joppa and John Beale acknowledge themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia each in the sum of $100. to be levied of their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and for the use of the said Commonwealth standeth: Yet upon this condition that if they and each of them shall personally appear before the Judge of the Circuit Court of this County on the first day of the next term to give evidence on behalf of John Faircloth as the servant of the Commonwealth and shall not depart thence without the leave of the said Court, then the above recognizance to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue.
