William Fairclough having gone before a justice of the peace of this County and made oath that Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs are justly indebted to him in the sum of one hundred dollars & fifty cents (and that the said sum became payable on the 5th day of December 1859) and that to the best of his belief the said Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs intend to remove their effects out of this Commonwealth so that there will not probably be therein sufficient effects of the said Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs to satisfy the aforesaid claim of said applicant when judgment is obtained thereon, shall only the ordinary process of Law be used to obtain such judgment (and thereupon the said justice taking bond and security from the said William Fairclough as the Statute requires having issued an attachment against the goods and chattels of the said Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs returnable to this Court, which has been levied on sundry goods and chattels of the said Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs. This day came the parties by their attorneys, who being fully heard, it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said Edward H. Hadley & Calman Biggs one hundred dollars and fifty cents with legal interest thereon from the 5th day of December 1859 together with costs by him in this behalf expended. And it is ordered that the officer who levied the said attachment sell the goods and chattels attached as aforesaid to so much thereof as shall be necessary and pay and satisfy this judgment to the plaintiff (and return the receipts if any to the Defendant) and return an account of such sale according to Law.

The Court doth assign James Holmes guardian of Wm. & John D. Dick & others of James Dick decd. Whereupon he together with James H. Johnson & James S. Phillips (his securities) (who testified in each as to their sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of five hundred dollars conditioned according to Law.

The Court doth assign Richard W. Bayless guardian of Martha C. & John R. Wm. D., James C. & Isaac M. Glasgow & others of Isaac Glasgow. Whereupon he together with Alfred S. Stephenson & Wm. D. McKim (his securities) (who testified in each as to their sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of five hundred dollars conditioned according to Law.

The Court doth appoint Mary J. Davis guardian of the person & estate of Mary Ann Davis widow of John Davis deceased of unusual mind &c. Whereupon he together with Mariah J. Davis, his security, (who testified
