On an appeal from a judgment of a justice of the peace recovered by the appellee against the appellants the 2^d day of April 1860 for $31.00

and $145.00
This day came the parties by their attorneys, who being fully heard and the evidence adduced maturely considered it seems to the Court that there is error in the judgment aforesaid. Therefore it is considered that the same be reversed and that the Appellants recover against the appellee their costs in this behalf expended as well as their costs before the Justice. Rulings agreed by the parties that this judgment is not to affect the matter in controversy of, in any future proceedings to be had between the parties.
