

Edward R. Gray, George L. Pope and Pope & Bloodgood. Concerning personal estate, was admitted to record, December 15th 1860.

A. M. Howell's estate - Order of sale.

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and the order of publication made. Pursuant to the decree of the October Term 1860 of this Court and was argued by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that two years have elapsed since W^m B. Shands qualified as Administrator of Anthony M. Howell decd. and there is a considerable balance of money and several slaves still in his possession as the estate of the said A. M. Howell of the payment of debts and no creditors appearing to contest the same. Therefore the Court doth adjudge, order, and decree that the said W^m B. Shands after retaining sufficient assets to pay the further expenses of the estate and this decree pay over to Henry M. Howell sole legatee under the will of A. M. Howell all the assets in his hands both money and negroes and take a receipt for the same and file it with the papers in this cause.
