

The Account of Wm. Edwards, guardian of Martha D., Ann Eliza, &c. and Robert S. Dyer, and of John S. Parker and Walter O. Parker, of James J. Dyer's administration with estate of Elizabeth Dyer, Dec. of James J. Dyer's guardianship of Franklin S. Dyer and Corine S. Dyer, of John S. Dyer's guardianship of Elizabeth H. Moore and Emmeline Moore, of James Dyer's guardianship of Mary Williamson and of Charles H. Hollister, guardianship of Stephen Williams, Anne Williams, Eliza Williams, Clara Williams, and Adeline Williams having been exhibited one month and upwards in the Clerk's office and their being no exceptions thereto & none examined, confirmed and ordered to be recorded.

The Court doth allow L. R. Edwards, Clerk of this Court, twenty five dollars for services in examining and entering the books of the Commissioners of the revenue of this County, to be paid Auditor, which allowance is ordered to be certified to the Auditor of public accounts for his examination & payment.

George H. Rogers, who stands charged with adultery, being committed into County of Southampton, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, in which that he died on the 17th day of August 1861 in the said County of Southampton, State of New York, and carrying away certain articles, to-wit: One velvet robe valued ten dollars of one Robert John Cook, value of twenty dollars the property of J. M. Walden, was this day set to the bar in custody of the jailer of this Court. And on the motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth, the examination of this cause is continued until the next term, for reasons appearing to the Court. And the said George H. Rogers moved the Court to be authorized to cause said recognizance to be received for his appearance before the said Court at the next term to answer for the said offence, which motion the Court entertained, and allowed the said George H. Rogers to enter into such recognizance himself with surety of fifty dollars, and suffering himself to be taken into the said sum of fifty dollars. And thereupon the said George H. Rogers and John H. Hampton his surety, acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, that is to say the said George H. Rogers in the sum of fifty dollars and the said John H. Hampton in the like sum of fifty dollars to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements; And upon this condition that if the above named George H. Rogers do and shall personally appear before the Justices of this Court at the next term thereof and shall then and there answer the Commonwealth of Virginia, for and concerning a certain felony by him committed, in felony, to-wit: Stealing, taking and carrying away certain articles to-wit: one velvet robe valued ten dollars and one coat of the value of twenty dollars the property of J. M. Walden, whereunto the said George H. Rogers, and John H. Hampton his surety, shall not appear before the term of the said Court, then the above recognizance shall be void, else to remain in full force and virtue.
