

The last Will and Testament of Robert Hart read this day again produced in Court and Mary Crumpler one of the subscribing witnesses being sworn depose that she is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Mary Crumpler and clearly believes that of the said Mary Crumpler to the said Will subscribed is in the proper hand writing of the said Mary Crumpler. Also the said Will having been before proved by the oath of William Stephenson a subscribing witness is ordered to be recorded.

Ordered that John Holt & H. B. Batts two of the Commissioners of roads let to the lowest bidder the repair or rebuilding in they may deem best of the bridge called the Jordan bridge on the south side of the highway near Jerusalem under the same when completed to make report to Court.

The Court appoints James Drury Commissioner of Roads in District No. 1 in the place of Saml Drury deceased.

Ordered that Robert Rowland & Jas Drury two of the Commissioners of Roads let to the lowest bidder the rebuilding of the bridge above applicable to the same when completed to make report to Court.

On the motion of James Jones & Alfred J. Stephenson Executors of Robert Hart dec'd the Court doth order that the Executors deposit all the moneys in their hands belonging to the said estate in some savings bank in the city of Schenectady paying six per cent.

Wright

} In Chancery

Wright

cause heard and decided as per decree filed

Book

} In Chancery

Book

cause heard and decided as per decree filed

Crumpler &

} In Chancery

Crumpler &

the Court appoints that pursuant to the report made his report

~~The Court being satisfied that Robert & James and immediately after the death of James in the year 1804 or thereabouts and probably answering to the same will on which the said James was the testator of the said Robert & James. Order that the said amount of the said James be paid by the said Robert & James be refunded to him. The attorney for the Commissioners being present and assenting to the application.~~

Ordered that the Court be adjourned till the first day of the next Term
D. 18. 1805