John W. Devine & John C. Davis Defts } Unlawful Detainer
vs. }
The day came the motion by their attorneys and thereupon came a jury consisting of Wm. C. Gay, Jas. H. Justice, Mills L. Gray, R. D. Vick, Edmund Riley, David Quincy, John Scott, R. T. Bachman, Edwin Harris, John Holland, George H. Egge and a Justice L. Lord. After hearing by which the defendants unlawfully withheld the premises in controversy from the plaintiff and having heard the evidence were sent out of Court and a foreman returned a verdict in the following words: "We the jury of the plaintiff that the Defts unlawfully withheld the Store House and the premises mentioned". Wherefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recovers against the defendants possession of the Storehouse and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And a writ of habeas corpus for possession is awarded, to cause the said plaintiff to have such possession.

Joseph A. Devine is appointed Surveyor of the road from Druryville to Applewhite Mill in the road of Canal Drury dist. And it is ordered that the usual hands do work thereon.

Upon the petition of James Devine guardian of Mary Robinsons it is ordered that the said guardian be authorized to invest in Confederate Stat. bonds and of the State of Virginia bearing interest, the sum of $2666 65 etc standing bond for the same if practicable in his name as guardian of Mary R. Robinsons, and that he use due diligence in collecting the interest thereon as it falls due and deposit the same as the law directs.

The demand of the Court is granted Letty Brown, a free negro, to bind his three sons, Joseph aged 14 1/2 years, John 12 years, and James and Joseph aged about years to D. & J. Britton. The Master paying for the services of the apprentices for each fully paid salary for each year for which they are to be bound to the master.
except for the last year which is to be paid to the apprentice.
