The will of James bearing date 16 August 1863 purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James W. Mills was this day again produced in Court by William T. Moore and Virginia his wife in order to be proved. And Edwin C. Wilkes, Esquire, appeared and approved the proof of the said Will. Whereupon deans witnesses were sworn and examined and the parties by their counsel fully heard. On consideration whereof it is the opinion of the Court that the time of recording the writing aforesaid was of bond mind and memory and that he was under no undue influence and that the said writing and the signature is wholly in the hand writing of the said James W. Mills. It is therefore ordered that the said writing be recorded as and for the last Will and Testament of the said James W. Mills.
