

Bridg's wife } In Chancery
 Bridg's }
 Duns as per decree filed

A Writing purporting the last Will and testament of James Gray bearing date the 5th day of July 1857, was this day again produced in Court by George W. Vick late Sheriff of said estate was committed for administration, whom his estate was intermarried with one of the daughters of the said James Gray appeared in Court and opposed the proof of the said will; Whamper and others were sworn and examined, and sundry depositions taken, were sworn and examined, and sundry depositions read and the parties aforesaid by their counsel fully heard; On consideration whereof it is the opinion of the Court that the said James Gray deceased at the time of executing the writing aforesaid dated the 5th day of July 1857, was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and that was under no undue influence. It is ordered, that the said writing of the 5th day of July 1857, be recorded as the last will and testament of the said James Gray deceased. Whamper in the motion of William Ryland an appeal is granted him from the said judgment on his given bond in the penalty of one hundred dollars with approved security conditioned according to law.

Thomas Saddle }
 Edward Stanley } Attachment

Duns. This cause is continued until the next Term.

The Commissioners appointed to ascertain and report to Court whether in their judgment it would be advisable for the County to purchase Muncifony for the public this day made their report.

The Commissioners appointed at the last term of the Court to examine the bridge across Mappenburg's Mill and also to view the site below the bridge and report to Court whether it is practicable to make one bridge answer the purposes of the two bridges &c. now this day made their report and it is ordered that the same Commissioners do to the Court's satisfaction the building of a bridge over the said Mill now according to their