

Board approving the said report shall adjudge order and decree that the same be confirmed.

Urgent 8th
against

Urgent 8th
against

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of the Commissioners made at the last Term to which no exception is filed and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Board approving and confirming the said report shall adjudge order and decree that the same be confirmed.

Jones & Wells against

Wells 8th
against

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of the Commissioners made at the last Term to which no exception is filed and was argued by counsel. On consideration the Board approve and confirm the said report and order that the costs of this be proportionally borne between the parties.

Hines & against

Hines 8th
against

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of the Commissioners made at the last Term. On consideration whereof the Board approving and confirming the said report, to which no exception is filed, shall adjudge order and decree that the same be held firm & stable between the parties and that the costs of this suit be equally borne between the parties.

Upon the petition of Sarah Stephenson this day filed under the Act of Assembly passed March 2^d 1806 and amended February 11th 1807, entitled "An act to stay the collection of debts for a limited period." Setting forth that she is an unmarried woman incapable of legal labor and is dependent for a support upon the debts due her, the collection of which are stayed by the act aforesaid. It is ordered that one of the Commissioners in Chancery of this Court do warrant and report to Court whether the said Sarah Stephenson is so dependent, and if so, what amount is necessary for her support of the said Sarah Stephenson for one year, which amount with interest if there be more than one, shall pay, discharging the whole upon show regularly and whether the same so ascertained shall be paid in installments or at one time, and if in installments when the same shall be paid.

Upon the petition of Franklin P. Pope and Corinne O. Pope wives and coheirs of John P. Pope, by their next friend and guardian Amos P. Pope this day filed under the act of Assembly passed March 2^d 1806 and amended February 11th 1807 entitled "An act to stay the collection of debts for a limited period." Setting forth that they are dependent for support upon debts due them, the collection of which are stayed by the Act aforesaid. It is ordered that one of the Commissioners in Chancery of this Court do ascertain and report to Court whether the said Franklin P. & Corinne O. Pope are so dependent, and if so, what amount is necessary for their support for one year, which amount with interest, if there be more than one, shall pay, discharging the whole upon show regularly and whether the same so ascertained shall be paid in installments or at one time, and if in installments when the same shall be paid.