Thomas J. Bryfson, Plaintiff against Murdock L. Stephenson, H. L. Stephenson and John P. Bryfson, Deft. Intervent.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and by appearing to the Court that the defendant John P. Bryfson has been adjudged a bankrupt, this Motion is Suspended as to him, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant Murdock L. Stephenson has had legal notice of this Motion, he was solemnly called, and came not, therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff moves against the defendant, Murdock L. Stephenson, twenty five dollars & thirty two cents, being a sum equal to the Intervent for one year on a bond executed by Murdock L. Stephenson, H. L. Stephenson and John P. Bryfson to the plaintiff dated the 14th of October 1855 for one thousand & eighty dollars which said bond was made and executed with reference to Confederate States Treasury Notes, as a Standard of Value, with interest thereon from this the 15th day of August 1858 till paid, and his costs by him in this behalf expended.
