This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendant being solemnly called came not.
 Whereupon came a jury to wit, Wm. A. Bell, Thomas S. Barham, Wm. W. Briggs, James S. Spring, Franklin Vick, John Davis, Almon Branch, John Bryant, Wm. B. Hall, John Ellis, John W. Fox and William Reale, who being sworn diligently to inquire of the damages in this suit upon their oath returned a verdict in these words to wit, "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned with compound interest thereon from December 25, 1861." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the Defendant Esther Cobb (the same having been suspended as to the Defendant Limer) One hundred and thirty dollars the debt in the declaration mentioned, with compound interest thereon from December 25, 1861, to be paid and his costs by her about her suit on this behalf expended.
