

will be pay the costs of this prosecution, & be otherwise discharged by said Court of said

The Commune

against

George Linnard & George Robert Hunt

Plff.

Def.

Upon a Presentment

This day came as well the attorney for the Commune as the Defendants by their attorney, and the Defendants say they are not guilty in manner & form as in the presentment against them is alleged, and if this thing put themselves and George Hunt, George & Pidd, Samuel Bates, Charles Bates, James & George Selahel Lane, Wm. Hunter, Jeremiah Bridgman, Henry Penfold, Thomas Young, Henry Williams & John C. A. Barker, who being charged and detained & verily in their words, "We the Jury find the Defendants guilty & assess their fine to one Cent each," therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commune sued against the Defendants one Cent each, the fine of the assessor, & the costs of this prosecution.

William Bates, who stands Counsel for the Commune was the day again solemnly called his name only, and the Court of copies allegations awarded against him being taken and found, It is ordered that this case be discontinued from the docket.

The Commune

against

William H. Jenkins & Jacob Linnard

Plff.

Def.

Upon a Presentment

This day came the attorney for the Commune as well as the Defendants by their attorney, and the Defendants confessed themselves guilty, in manner & form as in the presentment is alleged, & agreed to confess judgment in the sum of one Cent each besides the costs, therefore by the assent of the attorney for the Commune, it is considered by the Court, that the Commune sued against the Defendants the sum of one Cent each & the costs of this prosecution.

The Commune

against

John McElroy & T. J. Briggs

Plff.

Def.

Upon a Presentment

This day came as well the attorney for the Commune as the Defendants by their attorney, who being fully heard, and the evidence adduced considered, It is considered by the Court that the said will be discontinued.

The Commune

against

Samuel Conwell & Richard Edwards

Plff.

Def.

Upon a Presentment

This day came as well the attorney for the Commune as the Defendants by their attorney, & the Defendants confessed themselves guilty, in manner & form as in the presentment is alleged, & agreed