

The Court did charge John de Bingham Treasurer of some Money lent to James & John de Bingham
 Attorney of Massachusetts House, that & charge the said John de Bingham with the said Money & M. J. Butler his Receiver (who justifies on oath as to the said Bingham's receipt into & acknowledgment & paid in the sum of 1000 pounds sterling, Committed according to law, that but having a Stamp of the said Seal of the said House to the amount of one dollar affixed thereto & duly Consigned, is bound to be paid.

The Governour, appointed to be the referee of Angeline Bridge, this day gave upon reports of both the Court, accords.

Ordered that the Sheriff of the County out of any contingent Money in his hand pay to H. S. Burdett the sum of Fifty dollars, for the repairs of Angeline Bridge.

The Governour accords

against Benjamin S. King

This day came the Attorney for the Governour accords as well as the Defendant by his attorney, & the Defendant confessed himself guilty in manner & form as in the presentment is alleged, & agreed to confess judgment in the said of our said Court, therefore by the advice of the Attorney for the Governour accords, it is considered by the Court, that the Governour accords recover against the Defendant, the sum of two hundred & the Costs of this presentment.

The Governour accords

against
 Samuel Lewis & John Lewis

This day came the Attorney for the Governour accords as well as the Defendant, Samuel Lewis & Confess himself guilty in manner & form as in the presentment, is alleged, & agreed to confess judgment in the said of our said Court, therefore by the advice of the Attorney for the Governour accords, it is considered by the Court, that the Governour accords recover against the Defendant, Samuel Lewis, the sum of two hundred & the Costs of this presentment.

H. S. Burdett, Edward S. Turner & John J. Turner, Defendants, & J.
 Paulson, Plaintiff under the firm & style of Burdett, Turner & Coe. J.

against
 F. S. Ridley

This day came the Plaintiff by their attorney as well as the Defendant by his attorney & by their counsel it is considered by the Court, that the Plaintiff recover against the Defendant of 151.15 with interest from the 1st day of January 1768, his fees & their costs by them alone their said in the behalf, expended.

John H. Butler & Arthurson Butler Merchants, Defendants, & Paulson, Plaintiff under the firm & style of Butler & Brothers.

against
 F. S. Ridley