

The Commencement
against

James Jones & A. B. Jones

The same

against

James Tucker & Ann E. Cummings

The same

against

Richard C. Gray & (Sup. Ind. Ex.)

The same

against

John Jones & Sally Jones

Jeff

S. J.

Jeff

S. J.

Jeff

S. J.

Jeff

S. J.

The day come the attorney for the Commencement & the Defendants being solemnly called & not appearing it is ordered that the Rules aforesaid be & now absolute and that information be filed against the Defendants upon the proceedings aforesaid.

The Commencement

against

Richard C. Gray

Jeff

S. J.

The Defendant by his attorney says he is not guilty as to some & for as to the Proceedments against him is alleged & if this be true hereby upon the Country and the attorney representing for the Commencement likewise & the case is continued till the next Quarterly Term.

John S. Vaughan

against

John H. Bishop

John H. Gentry

against

William S. Langhorne

The Plaintiff not further proceeding it is ordered that these cases be dismissed.

James Jones

against

Elizabeth Adams

The Plaintiff not further proceeding it is ordered that these cases be dismissed.

& that the Plaintiff pay to the Defendant his costs.

Henry & James

against

James Jones

The Defendant by his attorney also pleaded two defenses to the action of the Plaintiff generally, the judgment obtained in the first is set aside.

Ordered that the account of William H. Gentry attorney for the Commencement in this cause according to Henry Jones be laid out to the Plaintiff of Tucker account for