

And the Motion of R. J. Williams to keep an ordinary of building in this County, the Court saying that he is a person of ability and good character.

In the Motion of Thos. Boushew. His Honor Just. Fabius Boushew is appointed Justice of Peace, to receive in this County on the 15th day of November 1849. John Barnes of Hope to serve Justice Justice for the benefit of the said Thos. Boushew.

In the Motion of Mary, w. White, who makes oath as the true owner, and claims an interest in the property of R. J. Williams, her late husband, conditional according to law, until the 1st. July, his decease, (with judgment as to the said property) for which said being acknowledged by the obligor, there is to be retained to be received. Conditional, by granting the said Mary w. White, for obtaining letters of administration on the estate of Henry White decd. in due form. It being shown that the said estate and affairs paid and in respect to which said letters of administration applied for does not exceed the value of $1000.

Ordered that John W. Higginson, Justice of the Peace, Wm. S. Aldridge and Carl Day, act, in any case of their, being found duly sworn for the purpose, do appear on the first and last day of Henry White decd. and return the appropriate answer their hands to the benefit of their heirs.

Martinianus Herbert and Eugene his wife against
William Benjamin, Am. Return, Decd and Effie Briggs
In this matter the age of twenty one years by J. W. Herbert, their guardian ad litem, is Suff. Infa.

This day this cause came on to be heard by a court of justice in the City of the Complaints and answer of the infant Defendants by J. C. Johnson their appearance at Albany, pursuant to process, hereto, and was argued by Counsel; the Commissioner whom the Court hath assigned, John and James, Esq. Wm. H. Archibald, Jesse L. Daily, Wm. A. Day, Joseph W. Weymouth and John B. Barrett, the appointed Commissioners, (and others of whom being duly sworn) to divide the real estate of which Decedent A. Benjamin died seized, and disposed, they assented to this order as shown. That they assented to Benjamin's heirs, (and their heirs) paid in value of the said lying South of the West point and West corner, and the remainder to William Benjamin, Am. Return, Decd and Effie Briggs) and report to this Court. And that the said Commissioners, and the Complaints, Surveyors if they should deem it necessary, and the Court have further assigned, John and James, that the same Commissioners, and report to this Court, whether in their opinion it would be best for the interests of the parties concerned to divide the said estate into several tracts lying North of the West point and West corner in kind amongst the parties entitled, or whether it would be best to sell the same, and report the same to the Court, with any other matters which they may deem pertinent and necessary. And the Court hath further