This Court this day came in to be heard on the papers formerly read out on the report of Commissioner Parker, made pursuant to a resolution voted at the last Court at the November Term of the County Court 1849 and also the books confirming said report, and reports, orders and decrees (That W. H. Manning, Jr., who was formerly appointed a Special Commissioner for that purpose, pursuant to an order of the Court filed in the Court, which at that time is directed to be read to him,) of $733.81 against John J. Harris, aka. H. Bradshaw & W. H. Bradshaw and all of the amounts he collected from any persons, that they have been increased in the Court since the making of the last decree, and the balance he is directed to distribute amongst the parties entitled according to their respective rights, and make report of his actings and doings, under the decree to Court.

On the Motion of John J. Harris and for reasons appearing to the Court he is discharged from the payment of any Taxes and County levies in future, the doings, acts and expenses.

This Court this day came in to be heard on the papers formerly read out on the report of C. B. Higgins, Commissioner for collecting Taxes and other amounts of February Term 1849, and was argued by Counsel, the Court deciding otherwise than last confirming said report, to which no exception was filed last of appeal, order and decrees that they shall be collected from the State.

Ordered That John Bailey, D. B. Parker and William Bailey, be appointed Commissioners to see and the rebuilding and repairs of the Leeward Bridge, and make report to Court.

The Commissioner appeared at the last term of this Court to take from the Court the report of C. B. Higgins for the rebuilding of the Leeward Bridge, and with reference to the report of C. B. Higgins (of 1849, 18) this day made their report -

On the Motion of A. H. Manning, John Bailey, James Vangard, William Vangard and Joseph F. Sherwood, he and they and hereby appointed Commissioners to see to the rebuilding and repairs of the Bridge on the New River, (and upon to be built) and make report to Court.

The Commissioner appeared to see to the Leeward Bridge under the report of the Motion Perry, this day made their report which is approved and confirmed by the Court.
