By Court of Justice the Cause this day came on to be heard on the Plaintiff's side answers of the Defendant, general explanation, I think, exhibit filed and was argued by Counsel, but the Court's decision was that the said Bygones, being a free man, shall not be the payment of Richard L. Bygones to William Edwards Esquire of Wm. & L. Esquire of one half of the principal and interest of a Bond for $188.44 at date of 2^d of December 1860 on the basis of the said indebted to the same on the County Bond of Southampton, that the said William Edwards should be rendered to give a release in full to said Richard L. Bygones and if shall release the said Bygones from all liability to the said William Edwards for the residue (but the Court did not approve, but said that Richard L. Bygones, pay all the costs incurred in this suit.)
