Henry Applewhaite comes into court and undertakes for the defendant that in case he shall be cast in the above causes he shall pay the condemnation of the court or render his body to prison in discharge of Thufame or that he will so do for him And the said Henry now here in court delivered the body of the said defendant in custody in discharge of this his undertaking. The day came the plaintiff by his attorney as the said defendant in his proper person, confessed the plaintiff's action for one hundred and fifty two pounds the debt in the declaration, ^{mutually} therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recovers against the said defendant the said one hundred and fifty two pounds and his costs by him about his suits in this behalf expended and the said defendant in mercy &c. But this judgment except as to the costs is to be discharged by the payment of seventy two pounds together with interest for the same to be computed after the rate of five per centum per annum from the fifth day of October 1752 to the time of payment
