

advantage of corruption all with to the place sets the word and declaration forays and has the comparable till the next court.

A report concerning the building the bridge at Vaughan Ford was this day made and is in the words following to wit. We the subscribers have let the bridge at Vaughan Ford to be built and kept in repair for seven years pursuant to an order of court hold for the county of Southampton in August 1752. for twenty six pounds also we the subscribers have mended the Flat bridge pursuant to a order of court hold for the county of Southampton bearing date August the 9. 1753. and find it according to agreement

Timothy Thorne
James Jones.

William Byrnes on his motion has time allowed till the next court to make up his account of attachment John Little guardian of Benjamin Clements explains of two clerks that returned an account of the said attachment is also to exhibit he made oath and the same was examined approved of by the court ordered to be recorded.

Ordered that the clerk of this county be appointed to receive the money due for all tobacco sold for the use of this county and that he account for the same when thereto required.

Ordered that Thomas Moore receive the sum of twenty seven pounds one shilling of the money belonging to the county for building a bridge at Vaughan Ford he giving bond for the performance of his agreement entered into at the undertaking thereof Mildred Jones and Jesse Brown good reported