William Eldridge

Thomas Jewell and Wm. Jewell vs. (Jett) In case

And the said Thomas by John Cox his attorney comes & defends the same and injury responds and says that the said William Eldridge ought not to have or maintain his said action against him the said Thomas because he says that the said Wm. Jewell his indolence at the time of making his promises and entering in the said declaration above mentioned was within the age of twenty one years and thus he absconds for And the said Thomas Jewell by the leave of this court further says that the said William Eldridge ought not to have or maintain his said action agt him the said Thomas because he saith that after the first day of June 1731 to wit on the said day of 1733 the said Wm. Eldridge lent the said sum of five pounds current shillings and three pence to the said William Jewell in his lifetime to have with contrary to an act of the General Assembly of this colony in that case made and provided And thus the said Thomas is ready to verify whereupon he prays judgement if the said William Eldridge ought to have or maintain his said action agt him for and the cause is continued till the next court
