

Shands not to have or maintain his said action agt him because he says that the said William Jamell his estate at the time of making the promise and undertaking in the said declaration ^{above} mentioned was within the age of twenty one years whereupon &c. And the said Thomas Jamell by the leave of this court further says that the said Thomas Shands ought not to have or maintain his said action against the said Thomas because he saith that after the first day of June MDCCLX to wit, on the said day of MDCCLXX the said Thomas Shands lent the said sum of six pounds thirteen shillings and six pence to the said William Jamell in his life time to game with according to an act of assembly of this Colony in that case made and provided And this he is ready to verify whereupon &c. and the cause is continued till the next court
