This day came the parties by their council and the defendant by proctoration not confessing or acknowledging all or any the matters or things in the said complainants bill set forth to be true in such overt manner and form as the same are therein and thereby set forth and alleged for by way of disclaimer to waive their defendant faith That there is no equity in the complainants said bill of complaint wherein he ought to be relieved in this worshipping court the same being brought for a promise of a presumption said to be made by this defendant to the complainant which by the complainants own showing is properly cognizable before a court of common law and not in this worshipping court wherefore and for that it is against the amount
