Stardy Beale d^ft } Benwell Beale deposed that by virtue of an agreement between this deponent and Stardy Beale the following goods were deliver'd to him and he was to redeliver the same at the expiration of twelve months to wit two Beas two rugs one pair cart wheels one pot 3 chairs one dark bay horse, 3 plates, 3 knives & 3 forks a chest and a table that before the levying this attach^t he was witness to a Bill of sale to Absalom Joyner from the said Beale by which he understood that the said effects were convey'd and that he heard the said Beale say that all the things in the house were the said Joyner's but that he saw no actual
