

Upon the presentment of the Grand Jury against Joshua Claud jun^r for prophane swearing the defendant in his proper person comes into court and saith that he will not contend with our lord the king of and upon the premises nor but that he is guilty in manner and form as against him in the said presentment in alledg'd. Therefore it is considered by the court that he make his fine with our lord the king by the payment of five shillings to and for the use of the government and the contingent charges thereof and the said defendant may be taken. &c.⁴ and that he also pay the cost of this prosecution.

An Account Current of the estate of Shelly Booth was this day returned by the persons appointed to settle the same and ordered to be recorded.

Upon the presentment of the Grand Jury against James Buttard for prophane swearing the defendant comes into court and saith that he will not contend with our lord the king of and upon the premises nor but that he is guilty in manner and form as agst him in the presentment is alledg'd. Therefore it is considered by the court that he make his fine with our lord the king by the payment of five shillings to and for the use of the government and the contingent charges thereof and the said defendant may be taken. &c.⁴

The presentment of the Grand Jury against James Barnes abates being no inhabitant of this County.

The presentment of Grand Jury against Edmund Catthorpe for playing at cards

Upon the presentment of the Grand Jury against Howell Edmunds for playing at cards the defendant comes into court and saith that he will not contend with our lord the king of and upon the premises nor but that he is guilty in manner and form as agst him in the presentment is alledg'd. Therefore it is considered by the court that he make his fine with our lord the king by the payment of five p^{ennies} to and for the use of the government and the contingent charges