 William Mackie s^t

This day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as the defendant in his proper person who confess'd the plaintiffs action for eleven pounds eighteen shillings and nine pence the debt in the declaration mention'd. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the said eleven pounds eighteen shillings and nine pence and their cost by them in their suit in this behalf expended and the said defendant in mercy &c. But this judgement except as to the cost is to be discharge'd by the payment of five pounds nineteen shillings together with interest from the ninth day of July 1772 till paid.

James Vick came into court and undertook for the defendant that in case the said defendant shall be cast in this suit, he will pay the condemnation of the court or render his body to prison in discharge thereof or he will do it for him. Whereupon this day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as the defendant in his proper person who confess'd the plaintiffs action for ten pounds fourteen shillings the debt in the declaration mention'd. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the said ten pounds fourteen shillings and their costs by them in their suit in this behalf expended and the said defendant in mercy &c. But this judgement except as to the cost is to be discharge'd by the payment of five pounds seven shillings and 7^d together with interest from the 23 Aug^r 1772 till paid.
