

Present

Atty. Jones
 Nick. Magie
 Henry Taylor -

Thomas Blunt
 William Blunt

The prisoner was set to the bar charged with the offence aforesaid. Whereupon divers witnesses were examined to wit John Barron and divers others and the prisoner heard in his own defence. Courts opinion that the prisoner is not guilty of the felony whereof he stands charged therefore it is considered that he be discharged.

At a Court held as above for the examination of Will^m Barron on suspicion of his being guilty of the felonious breaking and entering the dwelling house of William Davenport of the county of Sussex and stealing sundry goods and chattels the property of the said William

Present

Atty. Jones
 Nick. Magie
 Henry Taylor

Thomas Blunt
 William Blunt

The prisoner was set to the bar charged with the offence aforesaid and diverse witnesses examined to wit William Davenport who being sworn deposed that on the 24 day of this instant May being the day of the election in Sussex the prisoner being then at the deponents house some conversation happened between them about a wig delivered to the prisoner in the room that on the prisoner going away this deponent fastned his house and went from home but on his return found his house broke open and robbed of sundry things amongst w^{ch} was a pair of silver plated spurs and brown hat wig that this deponent hath since heard that the prisoner hath sold a pair of spurs since his commitment to cage. Ephraim Peebles and that the wig hath also been found in the custody of the prisoner and now produced which he saith is the wig he left in his house at his departure and further he saith not.

~William Davenport

Thomas Ridley being sworn deposed that this day the prisoner delivered to him the wig mentioned in the deposition above and now produced to the court and further he saith not.

Thos Ridley