

The persons appointed to view the bridges lately erected over round hills near Robt Evans this day made their report in the following words to wit: In obedience to the within order we the subscribers have viewed and examined the bridges lately erected over round hills near Robt Evans and find them completed according to the agreement entered into with the tithes. Signed Thomas Lane, Moses Phillips Whereupon it is ordered that the Treasurer of this county pay unto the undertaker the sum of

for the same and amount thereof with the court.

Carrie Gray Esq. who was elected to serve as a commissioner of the tax for this county in the room of John Taylor, and sufficient reasons appearing to the court is permitted to resign. Whereupon Samuel Held was chosen by this court to fill the said office, and after having taken the oath prescribed by law was sworn commissioner of the clay aunc dingly

Joseph Whitehead this day appeared and qualified as a Vestryman for the parish of St. Luke.

Thomas Larkford this day appeared and qualified as a Vestryman for the parish of Nottonway

The last will and testament of Josiah Hatfield deceased was presented in court by Joseph Whitehead one of the executors therein named, by the oath of Thomas Edmunds one of the witnesses thereto and to be recorded. And on the motion of the said executors who made oath according to law certificate is granted him for obtaining a probat thereof in due form giving security. Whereupon the said Joseph Whitehead with Thomas Edmunds his security entered into and acknowledged their bonds in the penalty of One thousand pounds current money for the said Joseph's due and faithful administration of the said decedent's estate and performance of his will.

Ordered that Titus Carr, Jacob Turner, James Maget and John Brashears or any three of them being first sworn before a justice of the peace for this county do appraise in current money the slaves if any and personal estate of Josiah Hatfield deceased and return the appraisement to the next court.

The last will and testament of William Wilson deceased was presented in court by Joseph Whitehead the executor therein named, by the oath of Thomas Edmunds one of the witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of the said Executor who made oath according to law certificate is granted him for obtaining a probat thereof in due form giving security where