against

Plaintiffs
Defendant } In L. Ct.

This day came the plaintiffs by Richard Belle their attorney and the defendant being solemnly called and not appearing on the motion of the said plaintiffs it is ordered that the conditional judgment obtained at the last court against the defendant and Charles Jenner security for his appearance be confirmed for Nineteen pounds, nineteen shillings and nine pence half penny the debt in the declaration mentioned. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiffs recover against the said defendant and Charles Jenner the said sum of nineteen pounds, nineteen shillings and nine pence half penny and their costs by them about their suit in that behalf expended & to be in mercy &c.

But this judgment except as to the costs is to be discharged by the payment of nine pounds nineteen shillings and ten pence three farthings together with lawful interest thereon from the 9th day of Novbr. 1775 till payment.
