This day came the parties by their attorneys and the defendants withdrawing their former plea say that they cannot deny the action of the plaintiff nor but that they owe to the plaintiff Fourteen hundred pounds virginia money as specified in the declaration, in manner and form as the plaintiff hath declared against them. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant his said debt and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended and the said defendant in money &c. But this judgment except the costs is to be discharged by the payment of Seven hundred pounds virginia money together with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of five per centum <sup>per annum</sup> from the 11th day of May 1780 till payment which by a rule of court and according to an act of assembly in that case made and provided is to be discharged in specie at the rate of one pound specie for every sixty pounds paper currency.
