Def^t

Pl^{ff} } On a bond given to reply the effects of the defendant Benjamin taken by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issuing on a judgment obtained in this court by the plaintiffs against the said defendant.

On the motion of the plaintiffs by their attorney and by virtue of an act of Assembly in that case made and provided the defendants having had legal notice thereof execution is awarded the plaintiffs against the estate of the defendants for seven pounds six shillings and eleven pence with interest thereon from February 1786 according to the condition of the bond aforesaid and for their costs by them in this behalf expended.

Thos. Newsum having obtained an attachment against the estate of Anthony Hornstead who hath privately removed himself or who absconds that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him for ten pounds eleven shillings and three pence with interest, the sheriff this day made return that he had executed the attachment on a horse saddle and bridle and the defendant being solemnly called and not appearing to reply the attachd effects on the motion of the plaintiff by his attorney it is considered by the court that he resolves against the defendant ten pounds eleven shillings and three pence with interest thereon from February 1st 1786 till paid and his costs by him in this behalf expended & it is ordered that the sheriff sell at public auction for ready money after due notice given the aforesaid attachd property and with the money arising from the sale discharge this judgment and costs or so much thereof as the sale amounts to and return an account of his proceedings hereon to this court
