The General court having seen and inspected the transcript of the record of the judgment obtained by the plaintiff against the defendants in this cause, in this court and it seeming to them that the judgment is erroneous in this, that the same was rendered for the slaves Simon and Olive, by if not to be had the prices of one hundred and fifty pounds for Simon and one hundred and fifty pounds for Olive, without such prices being ascertained by the jury, they therefore considered that the same be reversed and annulled, and did order that the jurors verdict be set aside and that the cause be sent back to this court, for further proceedings to be had thereon, it is therefore ordered that this cause be reinstated on the docket and tried by an other jury upon the same issue as it was tried before.

John Applewhite Esq. of Henry Applewhite decd. Plff. On a bond given to reply the effects of the defendant John Applewhite taken by virtue of writt of fieri facias issued on a judgment obtained in this court by the plaintiff against the said defendant.
Edward Harris and John Lundy Defs.
