James Minick having obtained an attachment against the estate of William Rading who had privately removed himself or so discovers that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him, and the sheriff making return that he had executed his attachment in the hands of William Maysenburg and summons as garnishee. This day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as the garnishee who being first sworn acknowledged that he had a sufficiency in his hands to satisfy and pay the plaintiffs demand. Therefore on the motion of the plaintiff it is ordered by the Court that he recover against the defendant nine pence eleven shillings and eleven pence and his costs by him in this behalf expended, and it is ordered that the said garnishee satisfy and pay to the plaintiff the aforesaid judgment & costs

John Parrow having obtained an attachment against the estate of William Rading who had privately removed himself or so discovers that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him, and the sheriff making return that he had executed this attachment in the hands of Mr. Wright and summons him as garnishee. This day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as the garnishee who being first sworn acknowledged that he is indebted to the defendant in a sufficient sum to discharge the plaintiffs demand. Therefore on the motion of the plaintiff who proved his demand to be just for upwards pounds, thirty two shillings and nine pence and the defendant not appearing it is
