Arthur Baykin having obtained an attachment against the estate of John Bunn who hath formerly removed himself or so absconds that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him, and the sheriff making return that he had executed the said attachment in the hands of James Summers, and summoned him as a garnisher, this day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as the garnisher who being first sworn depose that he is indebted to the defendant in a sum sufficient to satisfy and pay the plaintiffs demand. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant four pence one shilling & nine pence and his costs by him in this behalf expended, and it is ordered that the said garnisher pay the sum in his hands to the plaintiff towards satisfaction of this judgment & costs
