

George Blunt this day returned an account of Jurors into for the year 1787 which we are sworn to by the said off and ordered to be certified

Benjamin Williams having obtained an attachment against the estate of John Williams who hath privately removed himself or as alsemas that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served on him. This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the sheriff making return that he had executed the attachment in the house of James Stephens and summoned as a Garnisher who being first sworn deposes that he hath a sufficiency in his hands to satisfy and pay the plaintiffs demand, and he having proved his account of six pounds eighteen shillings & five pence to the jury, and the defendant not appearing, whereupon it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the 6th six pounds eighteen shillings and five pence and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And it is ordered that the said Garnisher pay to the plaintiff the foregoing judgment & costs.

This day came the parties by their attorneys and thereupon came also a jury to wit: John F. Blow, Robert Newsum, Edward Brantley, Thomas Holliday, Matthew Brice, Thomas Vaughan, Jeremiah Syler, Benjamin Turner, Samuel Hart, Sterling Laper, Lewis Jognes and Mr. Claud who being sworn and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon their oath do say, that the defendant is in no wise indebted to the plaintiff as against him he hath complained. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff take nothing by his bill but for his false clamors and go thereof hence without day and he in Shew, find that the defendant recover against the said plaintiff his costs by him about his defence in this behalf expended & On the motion of the plaintiff by his attorney for a new trial in this case the same is granted him.
