

62 you will not go till your master I will and Bay said to Bob you might as well go and tell at first at last and Bob hang down his head and said that he might go and tell of it and the evidence in behalf of the command was being thus closed and the prisoner being asked if he had any witnesses to examine or any further or other defence to make to which he replied he had not the court therefore on consideration of the evidence the agreements of Council and the whole circumstances of the case are unanimously of opinion that the prisoner is guilty of the murder aforesaid and it is ordered that the be taken from hence to the place from whence he came and from thence on Thursday the 10 day of September next to the usual place of execution and there between the hours of ten o'clock there in the afternoon of that day be hung by the neck till he is dead.

Memorandum the court value the slave Bob to one hundred pounds.

The minutes of these proceedings were signed by

Piste

Louis Fort

At a court held for the county of Northampton the 30th day of August 1802 for the examination of Nathan English charged with having on the night of Thursday 18th Instant by force of arms feloniously stolen from the possession of John Randles a free negro boy by the name of Davis.

Present Josiah Nick George Gurley Jr
Mills Coritt William Polaw } Justices James Miller Jacob Darroff }

The above named Nathan English this day appeared in discharge of his recognizance entered into to appear here was brought into court and deors witnesses being examined to wit John Randles Rusden Whitfield Amey Bailey Paddy Whitfield William Bryant John Jordan Benjamin Whitfield and Amieox Cutler who